

Financial Statement Kit

www.fcfcoa.gov.au

Use this kit if you are a party to a financial case

SUCH AS PROPERTY SETTLEMENT, MAINTENANCE, CHILD SUPPORT OR FINANCIAL ENFORCEMENT

This kit comprises:

- Information including relevant parts of the Family Law Rules (pages A, B and C)
- Financial Statement (pages 1-12) including accompanying information

For more information, visit www.fcfcoa.gov.au or call 1300 352 000

Important notes on completing this form

- The financial information you are providing should relate to your present financial circumstances and not those that existed at the date of separation.
- You must answer every item.
- Type or print clearly and mark [X] all boxes that apply.
- Write all amounts in whole dollars.
- If you can only give an estimate, insert the letter 'E' before the amount stated.
- If you do not know any information required and cannot estimate it after thorough inquiry, then insert the letters 'NK' (not known) in the space provided.
- If the amount for an item is nil, write 'NIL'.
- You must make full and frank disclosure of your finances. You must read rule 6.06 of the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Family Law) Rules 2021 (Family Law Rules), which is printed on the next page.
- Under Rule 6.06(6) of the Family Law Rules, if you are aware that completing this form will not fully discharge the duty to make full and frank disclosure, you must file an affidavit giving further particulars, in addition to this form. This Rule is printed on the next page.
- For an order about maintenance, child support or financial enforcement you must complete Part N on page 11.
- If you need more space for any item use the extra page at Part O on page 12.

Important! This form must be served on all other parties.

Filing your documents

This form should be filed with any accompanying documents online via www.comcourts.gov.au. For more information see www.fcfcoa.gov.au/howdoi

If for any reason you cannot eFile your documents, you can file by emailing them to the Court registry. For filing email addresses see, www.fcfcoa.gov.au/court-locations.

NOTE: For filing a family law application in Western Australia visit www.familycourt.wa.gov.au

Legal advice

Court staff cannot provide legal advice, although they can help with questions about legal procedure and the Court process.

It is important that you understand the meaning and effect of the orders you seek.

Even if you have decided to make your application without the help of a lawyer, you should obtain independent legal advice about the effect and consequences of the orders you propose and the rules of evidence that may apply to your affidavit.

If you are unsure of how to seek legal advice or how to choose a lawyer, the Law Society or Institute in your State or Territory may be able to help you.

If you think you may be eligible for legal aid, contact your nearest Legal Aid office. If you are an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander you can also contact your local Aboriginal, or Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service.

You may also be able to obtain assistance from your nearest Community Legal Centre.

WARNING

A failure to give full and frank disclosure has serious consequences. These consequences may include you:

- having to file further documents;
- having to pay the other party's legal costs;
- being fined;
- being charged with contempt of court.

Change of financial circumstances

If your financial circumstances change significantly you must file a new Financial Statement. See Rule 6.06 of the Family Law Rules.

Family Law Rules, Rule 6.06 Duty of disclosure - Financial proceedings

- (1) The duty of disclosure applies to a financial proceeding.
- (2) Subrules (3) to (9) do not apply to a party to a property proceeding who is not a party to the marriage or de facto relationship to which the application relates, except to the extent that the party's financial circumstances are relevant to the issues in dispute.
- (3) Without limiting subrule (1), a party to a financial proceeding must make full and frank disclosure of the party's financial circumstances, including the following:
 - (a) the party's earnings, including income that is paid or assigned to another party, person or legal entity;
 - (b) any vested or contingent interest in property;
 - (c) any vested or contingent interest in property owned by a legal entity that is fully or partially owned or controlled by a party;
 - (d) any income earned by a legal entity fully or partially owned or controlled by a party, including income that is paid or assigned to any other party, person or legal entity;
 - (e) the party's other financial resources;
 - (f) any trust:
 - (i) of which the party is the appointor or trustee; or
 - (ii) of which the party, the party's child, spouse or de facto spouse is an eligible beneficiary as to capital or income; or
 - (iii) of which a corporation is an eligible beneficiary as to capital or income if the party, or the party's child, spouse or de facto spouse is a shareholder or director of the corporation; or
 - (iv) over which the party has any direct or indirect power or control; or
 - (v) of which the party has the direct or indirect power to remove or appoint a trustee; or
 - (vi) of which the party has the power (whether subject to the concurrence of another person or not) to amend the terms; or
 - (vii) of which the party has the power to disapprove a proposed amendment of the terms or the appointment or removal of a trustee; or
 - (viii) over which a corporation has a power referred to in any of subparagraphs (iv) to (vii), if the party, the party's child, spouse or de facto spouse is a director or shareholder of the corporation;
 - (g) any disposal of property (whether by sale, transfer, assignment or gift) made by the party, a legal entity referred to in paragraph (c), a corporation or a trust referred to in paragraph (f) that may affect, defeat or deplete a claim:
 - (i) in the 12 months immediately before the separation of the parties; or
 - (ii) since the final separation of the parties;
 - (h) liabilities and contingent liabilities.
- (4) Paragraph (3)(g) does not apply to a disposal of property made:
 - (a) with the consent or knowledge of the other party; or

- (b) in the ordinary course of business.
- (5) A party starting, or filing a response or reply to, a financial proceeding (other than by an Application for Consent Orders) must file, at the same time:
 - (a) a Financial Statement; and
 - (b) a financial questionnaire in the form approved by the Chief Executive Officer.
- (6) If a party is aware that the completion of a Financial Statement will not fully discharge the duty to make full and frank disclosure, the party must also file an affidavit giving further particulars.
- (7) If a party's financial circumstances have changed significantly from the information set out in the Financial Statement or an affidavit filed under subrule (6), the party must, within 21 days after the change of circumstances, file:
 - (a) a new Financial Statement; or
 - (b) if the changes can be set out clearly in 300 words or less—an affidavit containing details about the party's changed financial circumstances.
- (8) Without limiting subrule (1), unless the court otherwise orders, a party (the first party) who is required by this rule to file a Financial Statement (other than a respondent to an application for maintenance only) must, before the first court date, serve on each other party who has an address for service in the proceeding the following documents:
 - (a) a copy of the party's 3 most recent taxation returns;
 - (b) a copy of the party's 3 most recent taxation assessments;
 - (c) if the first party is a member of a superannuation plan:
 - (i) the completed superannuation information form for any superannuation interest of the party (unless it has already been filed or exchanged); and
 - (ii) for a self-managed superannuation fund—the trust deed and a copy of the 3 most recent financial statements for the fund;
 - (d) if the party has an Australian Business Number—a copy of the last 4 business activity statements lodged;
 - (e) if there is a partnership, trust or company (other than a public company) in which the party has an interest—a copy of the 3 most recent financial statements and the last 4 business activity statements lodged by the partnership, trust or company.
- (9) Without limiting subrule (1), a respondent to an application for maintenance only must bring to the court on the first court date the following documents:
 - (a) a copy of the respondent's taxation return for the most recent financial year;
 - (b) a copy of the respondent's taxation assessment for the most recent financial year;
 - (c) copies of the respondent's bank records for the 12 months immediately before the date when the application was filed;
 - (d) the respondent's most recent pay slip;
 - (e) if the respondent has an Australian Business Number—a copy of the last 4 business activity statements lodged;
 - (f) any document in the respondent's possession, custody or control that may assist the court in determining the income, needs and financial resources of the respondent.
- (10) This rule does not require a party to be served with a document that has already been provided to the party.

INCOME - SPECIFY ALL AMOUNTS AS A WEEKLY FIGURE

- Specify current weekly income by completing all Items 9-15 that apply to you.
- All income must be recorded as weekly amounts. If you receive any income once a year, divide the yearly amount by 52 to calculate the weekly amount (likewise for quarterly, monthly, fortnightly or other periodic income).
- Include all amounts received even if they are not taxable.
- Include income received for the benefit of other persons, such as child support, board or carer's allowance.
- If you need more space for any item use the extra page at Part O on page 12.

Item 9

Insert a weekly figure for your gross salary or wages from all paid employment. If you are paid monthly multiply by 12 and divide by 52. Your gross salary is what you are paid before any deductions for tax or other payments made on your behalf. Also include any weekly sums paid to you for overtime and loading, commissions, allowances, penalties, bonuses, tips and gratuities.

Item 10

Specify a weekly figure for all interest paid to you by any bank, building society or credit union, any interest paid to you on a mortgage, any dividend on shares or any income from any rental property. In each case give the type of income and who it is paid by.

Item 11

An example of income you would include is drawings. Do not include any amount already specified in Items 9 and 10.

Item 12

Specify any payment to you from any government, including any overseas government.

Item 14

State type of benefit eg. motor vehicle, telephone, lease or hire purchase payments, superannuation, salary sacrifice.

Item 15

State all other income, such as any board, monies received from trusts/estates, periodic superannuation payments, workers compensation, income protection insurance, termination/redundancy payments. Include any lump sum payments received during the last 12 months, expressed as a weekly figure.

Part D Your income

NOTE: GIVE WEEKLY AMOUNTS IN WHOLE DOLLARS. IF THE AMOUNT FOR AN ITEM IS NIL, WRITE 'NIL'. IF YOU CAN ONLY GIVE AN ESTIMATE INSERT THE LETTER 'E' BEFORE THE AMOUNT STATED.

SUPERANNUATION

Item 45

If you are making an application for financial orders and you have a superannuation interest you must attach a completed Superannuation Information Form in relation to that interest to this financial statement.

WRITE THIS ITEM 44 TOTAL AT ITEM 2C ON PAGE 2 OF THIS FORM

The Superannuation Information Form is available in a Kit from the Court's website. It is a form that you send to the Trustee of your superannuation fund and seeks information which is necessary to enable the type of superannuation interest to be identified, a valuation to be determined of most superannuation interests and to inform the Court of various matters which may affect the order it makes. Depending on the type of orders sought by you a valuation of your superannuation interest must be determined before the order can be made. For example, this is the case if a splitting order is sought in accordance with section 90XT of the Family Law Act. You should seek legal advice about these matters.

Part J Superannuation

You must attach a completed Superannuation Information Form for each superannuation interest if you are seeking an order for property settlement.

ORDERS FOR MAINTENANCE, CHILD SUPPORT, FINANCIAL ENFORCEMENT

•	All expenses must be recorded as weekly amounts. If you have expenses that you pay once a year divide the yearly amount by 52 to calculate the weekly amount (likewise for quarterly, monthly, fortnightly or other periodic income)
•	In completing Part N do not repeat any of the items already listed in Items 19-31 in Part G on pages 4 and 5
lte	em 60
	ecify how much of the total weekly costs for each item are for you, your children and any other adults.

Orders for maintenance, child support, financial enforcement

Complete and attach this page only if the application is for orders for maintenance for yourself, the other party or your children or child support or financial enforcement

60 Average weekly expenses
